This subject seems to be greatly misunderstood by officers generally, judging from the numerous applications on the aubject.

The act provides: "That all officers of volunteers how in commission below the rank of Bilgadier-General, who shall continue in the military service to the close of the war, shall be entitled to receive, upon being swatered out of service, three months' pay proper."

This, then, devolves two conditions upon the officer to entitle him to the beacht of the act. I have been continued in the military service to the close of the war. That this alternate increase and diminution in the strongth of the stream should occur every twenty-four hours is rather singular, but the trough of the stream that it was the singular to the stream of the stream o oves nothing, except that precisely that gib of time is required for the siphon to give the basin, and for the latter to become lifed to the arch of the siphon.

THE FENIANS

[From the Army and Navy Journal.] Have we an Irish republic amongst us? Yes have one, and, if we could pause there, and do very well. Unluckity, we have st two Irish republics here in Ame ica, each a lall set of chiclals, ruling over a hap, d patriotic, though somewhat excited, per a second two Irish republics in Ama ple. As we find two Irish republics In America, where we do not need any, it is not surprising to learn that there is not even one such institution in Ireland itself. Why the wo sease of government of the two Irish republics are located in New York; why the R obstate does not forthwith establish his republic, as in Cork, and the O Mahony, say in Dublin, where they are reported to be much desired by the people, is a point naturally suggested, but which requires rather more elaboration and explication than we can now give. But, at all very one reported in the country as a could be well managed in this country which we could be well managed in this country when the supplies the country in the country was a such as could be well managed in this country.

hen formidable. The great Suaday demiration in Jones' Wood, a well known pi , a well known pia resort near New York, indicates the he hostile news from across the water. Egit en years ago the act of habeas corpus wa spended in Ireland in a crisis similar to the essent. On the 17th of February last, leave present. On the 17th of February last, leave on the ask a similar suspension till the 1st of expression till the 1st of expression till the 1st of expression to the 1st of expression to the state of the extraordiarry majority of three huased and sixty-lour to six—practical unaulmity, the conclasion is irresistible that the action of the Bitish Government has stamped Feninsmia Irresaud with the rank of open rebeller. The strength of the vote by which the abeas corpus was suspended, and the fact that if that class of statesmen on whose judgment with the first we of America have learned to by supported the measure, clearly indicate at the Irish movement must no longer be liked of as "disaffection," but as revolt. Of Woodchouse pointedly wrote to Sir George ex that no "could not hold himself responsible the relevant of the country" if power to appread and detain such persons as he might suspect conspiring against her Maissty." So it appeared to Londoners when our ewn Government suspended the act a few years ugo. We shall have the authorities and the insurgents brought face to face in open issue, couner that otherwise could have been expected. The leisure, we dilling, equipping and accumulation of funds by American Fenians will mature into more decisive acts, and the quarrels of Head Centers be postpared till—say "sky days after the recognition." aad, and we do not see how the Fenians would be any happier or the Irish persantry any freer from grievances by the transfer of the neadquarters of the Irish Republic from their present asset, salubrions, and pacific locality in Union Equarc, New York, to St. James street in Montreal. We laucy that some impediments might be found on the road from Rouse's Point to Montesi, or on the way to Ottawa, Kingston, or Quebec. Suppose these stambling brooks were removed, in what respect would success be neare? The Canadian people are not so discontented with monarchy or with colonian dependence. If they were, they would demand a part in the American Republic, or at less alm at a Canadian Republic—not at an Irish one. Suppose President O'Mahony had his Write House in Quebec, and President? Roberts his in Montreal; how would that he'Dork and Dablin? We anderstand that Ireland is the country to be relieved from oppression, and not Canada. Nor can we comprehend how the establishment of one or more Irish republics in Canada can oust the Lord Lieutenants from his comfortable quarters in Dublin. It is probably conjectured that an attack on Canada would draw off troops from Great Britain, and so expose freland. The late scare on the border, aboveled, does not lend much probability to such a result. The militia came out in Loca, however, does not lend much probability to such a result. The militia came out in Loca, how or lew fresh troops from English saired up the St. Lawrence. At all events, the scheme is ble wa how, and canaot be greatly relied on again, at least, by way of surprise. Or, infaily, it may be imagined that If Canada is captured. Perhaps it might be well to advertise for proposals for a plan of campaign. The invasion of Ireland will fee a difficult job. The lavasion of Ireland might be less so, but it would hardly come near the proposed end. Ireland once separated from the Three Kingdoms, the hold on Canada would become worthless, so contemptible would only follow the wav of the world in our Western Hemisphere, and It would only follow the wav of the world in our Western Hemisphere, and region would not relax its hold on Ireland to save it. While, however, we can hardly sympatize in the expectations of those who expect immediate dismemberment in the British Empire, we do not forget the his-toric woons of Ireland.

seared and would not go near the house. Including the owner of the place, who wrote to the Agent of the Freedmen's Bureau to send some one to take her corpse ont, and he would burn the house. The matter was referred to agent at Athens, Mr. Coman. After a day or so ke replied, and states that he had made efforts to get negro men to go up and bury the body, offering $10 per day and expenses, but no one would engage to do it, alleging that they would lose their situations on the farms if they did so. At the time Mr. Coman wrote the corpse had been lying in the honse three days. We do not know, indeed, that it has been buried even yet.—Huntsville Independent.

The Chicago Times thus compliment he Republican United States Senator from class of men who can only arrive at tolerable respectability by becoming drank. Strange as this statement may appear, it is the exact and literal truth. His egotism, ignorance, and inscience are much less offensive when he is drank than when he is sober.

THE KASSON DIVORCE CASE—A CONFES-SION AND DIVORCE,

From the Dubnque Herald, March 3.] [From the Dubaque Herald, March 3.] The lastitution of a suit of divorce by Mrs. oin A. Kasson against her husband, and their nal separation, has excited some attention uring the just three weeks, but still has not exceeded that attention from the press which its aportance would seem to demand. The promiseace of Mr. Kasson, his well know ability and alluence in the councils of the nation, which

White he was absent in Washington this win ter, Mrs. Kassen not only heard, but it woul seem obtained evidence that he was guilty o violating his marital vows. Who with, how ever, when or where, is not known, and proba-bly will not be made public. It is said, how-ever, that the lady in question was ladiscreet enough to write him a letter that contained a good many things a friendly epistic should not contain, and this of coarse was miscarried and finally came into Mrs. Kasson's possession, and is preenmed that this contained the evide of his sin. Be this as it may, she considered her wrongs too grievons to be borne, and with a tull knowledge of all she and he both must eacrifice, she determined to institute proceedings, and a petition for divorce was drawn up, but we cannot learn that it was ever need. This was shout the middle of February. Of course, it would not long be kept a secret, and when started, it traveled fast. Its travuled nour Des Molues dispatch published on the murrillay of February 20. Mr. Kasson was at once informed of the state of affairs, and started for he me. It will be recollected he was charged in some of the papers with dodging on some of the important voice takes that week in Coagress; but it now appears he was speeding away of his sin. Be this as it may, she considere

The MUTINY OF THE THERD MICHIGAN CAVALARY—It is pretty well known that this regiment has had the reputation of belag one of the best bodies of cavalry in the service. For fighting, marchiag, or drilling, it is unequaled by any cavalry regiment in the United States. Like will of the volunteers, the men composing the regiment wanted to go home. A few weeks ago, while upon parade G n Thompson complimented the regiment in cloquent terms, and stated to them that it was an anone to be kept in service. Says the General: "To say nothing about our past services, on inspector in the same would be a supported the service as long as any necessity exists for reservice as long as any necessity exists for reservice as long as any necessity exists for reservice as long as any necessity exists for rethe revice as long as an accessive xists to hing the service of volunteers." FERLINGS OF THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE -The Disunionists in Congress are trying to fortify themselves through the labors of their right bower, the Destruction Committee of Eifteen. They hope through this guillotine to decapitate the President. Now, it is not the fact, as the bellef has it, that Dr. Guill tin was own interests, protect the freedmen in all of sheaded by his instrument, and the Disnnioniste may not be by theirs. It is a fact, however, that Morton, the Regent of Scotland, tell a victim to the guillotine which he introduced, and the would-be Regent of the United States from Pennsylvania may perhaps thereby take a hint as to the practice! workings of the "infernal machine" which he has introduced into Congress in the shape of his Destruction Committee. The gentlemen composing this inquisition are catching up all the stray persons they can lay their hands upon, and examining them as to the feelings and loyalty of the Southern people. Occasionally they examine responsible men as to the state of public sentiment in the outh, among whom is Major-General George H. Thomas, whose testimony we published

Gen. Thomas states, among other things, that he has received communications from "reliable and truthful" persons to the effect that secret political organizations exist to some extent in the South hostile to the Government, and formed to embarrass it by "endeavoring or making strong efforts to gain very important expressions to the people of the South, and if possible to repudiate the national debt incurred consequence of the rebellion, or to gain such an ascendancy in Congress as to make provision it there had been only three members—Presifor the assumption by Congress of the debt incurred by the rebel government. Also, in private centleman could have passed the reso, take the United States Government can be in lutions unanimously. volved in a foreign war, to watch their opportunity and take advantage of the first that occurs to strike for the independence of the States lately in rebellion." Gen. Thomas sava that his information leads him to believe that there organizations exist in all the States lately revolt, but he does not know to what extent the disaffection has extended, and that he is not aware that any persons of influence are implithe whole truth in reference to the matter.

We are under the impression that Ger. Thomas has been misled and imposed upon by sons whose excited imaginations have run away with their judgments. We have conversed with many persone from different Southern States since the close of hostilities, and we have received letters from many others, and in but a single instance have we heard of anything of the kind hinted at. We think such reports are calculated to do gross injustice | name of a Union man among the delegates to the Sonthern people. If there is any one truth that is admitted on all hands, and which seems to be settled, it is that they are done fighting; that nothing could induce them to renew a contest which would be utter madness or comething worse, without or with foreign aid. We don't believe there is a man in the South, who has been a General in the Confederate service, or a Governor of a Southern State, or a Representative or Senator in the federate Congress, or a leading thinker, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and New Hampwho would give the least countenance to 60 Utopian an idea. At the same time, we do not doubt that there are persons of the lowest character in the Southern cities—persons who would rob a neighbor in the dark, make a radical speech, or turn overseer upon a plantation found him a most charming gentlemen-conin Cuba, or engage in the African slave trade on the coast of Guinea, or who would readily engage in any other enterprise out of which could make, or think they could make, a "good thing"-who would give countenance to the idea of secret societies hostile to the Government, or any other idea equally brilliant and seeing. There were guerrillas and robbers in the South who were ready to prey npon cliher party, according to the chances of success. These fellows are not all dead. There are somof them lying about loose here in Kentucky. and we doubt not they honor other ex-clave States, as they do Northern States, by their personal presence. It is against these wretchesthe scum and putridity which the troubled waters of the last five years turned up-that society has to contend and will have to contend, in all probability, for some years to come. It should arm itself against them. The primal law of nature demands it, and the great interests of liberty, safety, civil rights, and protecion, in the South particularly, demand it. Good men must combine to hunt down the turbers of the public peace. Every honest man has a direct, special motive for doing so. These human vultures must be extirpated - harged or shut up in the peniten-

If there are any other persons than this pecu liar class in the South who heve given countenance to political organizations hostile to the Government, they must be those sagacious individuals who, in the fall of 1860, were perfectly sure that an armed struggle with the Vaited States Government would be "no great shakes SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER no how," and would end within six months in the establishment of an independent Southern Empire, "the most glorious that the sun ever shone upon." And, really, we don't think, we can't think, that the counsels of such men will now or hereafter have much weight with the Southern masses. The class of persons who would be ready to form secret societies to "em barrase the Government" and to "watch their or portunity" "to strike for the independence of the States lately in rebellion" must be such as were referred to by a Major-General of the Confederacy in a conversation with us some time since, and whose character we will describe for the benefit and enlightenment of the Destruction Committee of Fifteen.

The General we refer to was temporarily at Memphia, stopping at a hotel. A stranger, ascertaining who he was, desired a private inter. view with him upon some matters of great pith and moment. Wishing to be posted upon anything that might be astir, the General granted the private interview. Seeking a retired apartment, carefully shutting the door, and seeing there were no eaves-droppers about. Mr. Noo dies, with an air of mystery and in a low voice,

"General, what are you going to do?" General-"Do about what?" Noodles "Why, about about our - independence, of course." General-'Oh, I'm done, sir, I'm done. I'm going to work to make a living." Noodles-"I'm not!"

General-"Where are you from?" Noodles-"Missouri."

General—"What regiment did you belong Noodles-"Well, I didn't exactly belong to to encourage loyalty in the South, but everything they could to discourage it. Now, we presume they will turn round, and, with characteristic impudence, allege the work of their own hands as the excuse for still further depredations upon the Constitution and still further efforts to demotian the Union, in order to "re-construct" it upon the model of the Council of Ancients and the Ownell of Five Hundred.

If they should succeed, their work would no of all parties, in various portions of the State we announce that a grand mass meeting of the friends of President Johnson's restoration policy will assemble in this city on WEDNESDAY, THE SEVENTH OF NEXT MAY. All the counties of the State are earnestly requested to send Celegates to the meeting, irrespective of old party issues or party names, that the people of Kentucky may clearly express their determination to sustain the President against the

In our Indianapolis special will be found full report of the proceedings of the Indiana State Convention, including the speech delivered by Ron. D. W. Voorhees. The platform adopted by the convention is a substantial one and does honor to the men who formed it. As will be observed, the greatest harmony of action prevalled, and the indorsement of Andrew Johnson was enthusiastic and unqualified. This tion is said to have been the largest ever held in the State.

at a special sitting of the Police Court at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The defendant was a young man named William Cox, but who, when arrested, called himself Nelson. He was taken into custody by Officers Bligh and Slater, upon the charge of indecent exposure of person. For the last three or four months omplaints have been made against this man by different ladies residing south of Walnut treet and by misses attending the schools in that part of the city. During that time he has loitered in the neighborhood and repeatedly offered the most brutal insuits to the ladies who appeared as his accusers yesterday. The police, from their imperfect description of the dirty ruscal, had been numble to identify Officer Bligh recognized him vesterday, after having watched his movements through the greater part of the day. Several of the ladv s identified the prisoner and fully estab lished his guilt. For his unbinshing obscenits on three occasions, Cox was fined $60, and further held in a bond of $1,000 for his decent havior for twelve mouths. It is a pity that the law provides no heavier penalty for such shameless conduct as this brute was charged with. He is eaid to be an employe in boiler-yard of Mr. John Plarce, 443 West Main street, but is a resident of New Albany. In the scurrilous offenses he so brazenly commit ted, he seems to have had no scruples about dis honoring his respectable family. They may well feel ashamed for him.

HEAVY BAIL -On Monday night last, at the ecruiting office on Main street, between First and Second, two men named Thomas Ryan and Charles Harris committed a fiendish outrage upon the body of a poor young woman deceased Union soldier, and had visited this city, we understand, in search of some relatives. Having mede application at various military offices for assistance nutil she could find her relatives, she was finally referred to the Freedmen's Burean, where her destitution was made known. Capt. Kennedy very kindly provided a lodging-place for the lady. During the night the above-named villains, who had just enlisted in the army, forcioly entered the room where Mrs. Stevers was sleeping. One of them, with knife threateningly drawn, compelled the help less woman to submit to his diabolical outrage, and the other black hearted scoundrel attempt ed the same act but without auccess. Mrs. Stevens struggled from their grasp, and they escared before she could alarm the police. The men were a few hours afterward arrested and taken to jail by Officers Fritch and Ovington. On presentation before the City Court yesterday the anthors of this foul crime were held to ba in $2 500 each to appear at the next term of the defferson Circuit Court

COLORED ORPHANS' Home - We understand that the colored population of our city are making an organized effort to collect a sufficient amount to procure an Orphans' Home for the lestitute orphan negroes in our city. It is a noble charity, and the effort they are making is an early evidence of their sincere desire to take care of their helpiess orphans. They should be encouraged. The charity should not be confined to the negroes alone. Our liberal and Christian community should, as we believe said, "Suffer little children to come unto me," did not mean the whites alone. This is intended to give them religious instruction, and to teach them how to become good and useful

The need for such an institution is so apparent and its necessity so urgent that it will address itself to every good man in our city,

The meeting of the General Conne'l isst night was pretracted to a late honr. It was Boards since the memorable Market street railway embroglio The police bill, constitut ing the Mayor, Presidents of the Upper and Lower Boards of the Council, and the Cnairmen of the two Police Committees a Board of Commissioners for the appointment of members of the police force, was reconsidered and passed. This will produce quite a revolution in the Police Department—for the better, it is to be hoped. The election held resulted in the reconfirmation of Colonel A T Johnson, Chief of Fire Department; George Stealy, City Engineer, and Mrs. Emily Gary, Superintendent of the Hospital. With these old incombants the people are more than satisfied, and the Council but ratified the popular wish in reelecting them.

APPOINTMENT .- Major J. C. Robinson of the United States infantry (Brevet Brigadier-General U. S A), has been appointed a member of the Board of Officers to assemble at Washington, D. C., on the 16th inst., or so soon thereafter as practicable, to make recomendations for brevet promotions in the infa try from any brevet or actual rank for which the appointment is already confirmed to the grade of Colonei or any lower grade in the and Jefferson streets during the past week of regular army. These recommendations will be of two classes, for "gallant and meritorions service" and for "faithful service." The Board of Officers is ordered to meet by Lientenant-General U. S. Grant. RELEASED FROM THE PENITENTIARY .- Before a military commission which convened in this city in March, 1865, Alfred Isaacs, a citizen of Kentucky, was arraigned, tried for being a guerrilla and violating the laws of war, and sentenced to seven years' confinement at hard labor in the penitentiary at Frankfort. On the recommensation of Governor Bramlette, and for reasons appearing in affidavita filed at de partment headquarters, the sentence has been remitted by General Palmer and the prisoner and Mason Parson, induced a stranger to play cards with them, somewhere near the Louisville and Nashville railroad depot, yesterday They won the man's money, and he suspecing them for regular blacklegs, refused to let them have the stake. Thereupon the burly gamblers seized the man and forcibly robbed him of the money which they claim to have won. Officers McKinney, Antle, and Glass were informed of the affair and arrested the robbers and carried them to jail,

INDIANAPOLIS, March 15. This has been a proud day for the Indiana emocracy. The Democratic State Convention which met to-day, has been a perfect enccess in character, in numbers, in enthusiasm, in harmony. It has not been equaled by any delecate Convention which ever assembled in Indiana, and in these regards it presented a striking ontrast to the Republican February 224 Consention. There was not a man present but elieved that the time for a change in the ad. ninistration of our State and National Governments had arrived, and the spirit manifested b he Convention demonstrated most conclusively that the result would be accomplished. Notwithstanding the high streams and difficulty in raveling, every county in the State but two were fully represented. The Convention met in the Metropolitan Theater, at 10 o'clock, and when it was called order it was the universal remark that it was one of the finest bodies of men that had ever assembled in the State. The Chairman of the State Committee, J. J. Bingham, took the chair, and, on motion of Hon. Bayless W. Harney, Colonei Cyrus Dunham was selected as the temporary presiding officer, and was inroduced by Mr. Blngham.

On taking the chair, Mr. Dunham returned banks for the honor, and congratulated the ciegates, himself, and the whole Union on the salfestations of earnestness and enthusissm bleh he saw reflected on the faces of all pres ent. When he said the whole Union he meant what he said, for he believed that the storms and roubles which had distracted the nation for the past five years were over, and that now hrough the dark clouds, he could ses the bright learning of the day star, speaking of hope and rty for the people. He did not propose to dulge in lengthy remarks, as he prc-umed eryone present would be heard from by etch, or by his vote with regard to his intenons for the coming canvass. Earnesiness of alpose and a determination to succeed shone in every eye. He believed the Democracy would cceed. [Cheers)] In the success of the Democratic principles is involved the safety of

Now no hostile play the hypocrite. Mr. Voorhees closed his bavorets glistened in the sunlight, and the cloquert, logical, and patriotic speach by an muzzel of no frowning cannon were pointed at the Convention. Theu the skies were overcast with dark cionds, but now the giorious sunlight warmed and llinmitted the prospect. We His speech was enthusiastically received by the ught to thank God that he had inspired our | Convention, and he was repeatedly greeted with hearts with the conrage, the manliness, and the severance necessary to go through those rrible scenes without faltering or proving creant to our trust. He congratulated the Democracy of Indiana on their fidelity to the Union, the Constitution, and the principles of free government: he believed that a terrible isis in the life of the astion was approaching. The enemy that the Democracy must meet and overthrow is no new one; it is the same foe to free government which rose up thirty years ago, a party of disunion, of higher isw, of disruptlon, and anarchy. The Union of these States, so far as official power can recognize It, is new emlodied in Andrew Johnson, the President of the United States. The Republican convention, which met in this city on the 22d of February, had passed a resolution which was posiively incuiting to the President, while it Inorsed the leaders in Congress, who are doing all in their power to thwart his efforts for the restoration of peace and harmony. The party which now controls the action of Congress rose thirty years ago as a disunion party. To the party which derives its inspiration from the Sumpers and the Stevenecs, we are in a good measure indebted for the terrible civil war which has devastated and impoverished our country. The Southern secessionists unaided by the disunion party of the North. could never have effected it. The real disunion party was to be found in the North. Witness the teachings of the Indianapolis Journal and the Cincinnati Commercial of 1860. They told the Southern States to go, whereas every Democratic epeaker reiterated the principle that the Union must be preserved. The disunionists of the North, though at flist anxious for a dissolntion of the Union, saw visions of hate, revenge, plunder, and epoliation in the war, and anddenbecame very anxious to preserve the Union they had iabored to destroy. But they were all aiong the real disunionists. Even now they continue disunionists, and refuse to permit the restoration of peace and harmouy which might so easily be effected They will tell you that they refuse to admit Southern members to their esats in Congress because there are no loyal copie in the South, but it is faise. He had seen . Johnson, of Arkaneas, a loyal man, who had been sconrged from head to foot under the Federai flag, refused the ordinary conrtesy of admission to the floor of Congress. He asked if this ene of desolation was to be prolonged indefinitely? What does the Christian pray for but that the memory of this bitterness shall pass away? No one but the party whose cardinal ninciple was hate wished to perpetuate for mseif batred-nobody. Hate was not in the gospei which he had been taught. He believed holding up and strengthening the hands of the President in this his hour of trial. When easens for the restoration of peace and harmoand at the same time saw the vultures of licsism hongering and thirsting for more ed, more plunder, he could not heeltate a oment. The Committee on Resolutions, through their Chairman, Judge Hanna, reported the foilowng resolutiona, which were unanimonal adopted by the Indiana State Convention: 1. Resolved, That among the powers ceded to

rights, of which obedience and protection are the chief.

2. Resolved, That the principles avowed by President Johnson in his annual massage looking to the early practical restoration or all the States to their rights in the Union meet with our approval, and the action of the majority in Congress, dictated as it may be by fausticism or just for political power, and being exerted to thrust such States ont of the Union, we solemnly condemn; therefore we cordially indorse the veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill, and declare that in our judgment the courage displayed, the doctrine avowed, and the high sense of right manifested in that message and subsequent speeches promise well for the future administration of the Precident, and we hereby pledge him the earnest and disinterested support of the Indians Democracy, in all his conflicts with that fanalearnest and disinterested support of the Indians Democracy, in all his conflicts with that fanal-cal Congressional majority, in his laudable ef-forts to prevent them from changing or destroy-3. By the enfranchised negro vote they would hold the balance of power and dictate the future policy of the Government. This is no chimera, no bugbear, but is heard from their own lips.

Negro suffrage in the District of Columbia meant nothing in itself. It was but a beginning. The Republican leaders in Congress contend for absolute equality before the law, and the Republican Convention of Indiana had indorted Sumner, Stevens, and the rest of them. It called upon the Orths and the Julians After the adoption of the resoin-

Badger, of Clark; Treasurer of State, James B Ryan, of Marion; Attorey General, John R. Coffroth, of Huntington; Seperintendent of Public Instruction, R M. har-man, of Knox. General Manson and Mr. Ryan were nominated by acciamation, they having no competitors. There was a spirited contest for the others, but with the best of fceling. The ticket nominated is an excellent one, and will command public confidence. General Manson is a galiant soldier, who achieved distinction in the Mexican and the lste wars, and is a gentleman of sterling sense. Badger is a German, and stands high for ability and integrity. Ryan is an Irishman, and one of the best business men in the State. He has the confidence of our moneyed men, and is the man for the place. Coffreth is one of the most eminent lawyers and accomplished men in the Stale. Chapman is the President of the Vincennes University, and is a Christian gentle-Mr. Buskirk, who had been mentioned favor ably for Secretary of State, withdrew his name so as to give a clear track for General Manson.
